

Elayaraman Ramalingam:

I'm Elayaraman Ramalingam, and here is a brief description of myself. My mom is a hard-working woman who works in brick kilns. As for my late dad, he started as a loadman but went on to run a poultry farm. His journey inspired me to try new things and keep learning.

School wasn't the best for me, but it shaped me into who I am today. After completing my diploma, I planned to pursue a BE degree. That's when I heard about FSSA, and it seemed exciting and very promising. I wasn't wrong about that. I am learning a lot and having new experiences.

My goal in life is simple: live a cozy life without hesitation.
